Designation being applied for:

Certified Insurance Consumer Service Representative (CICSR®)

In accordance with the rules established by the IRES Board of Directors, to earn the CICSR® designation, an individual must:

- 1) Satisfy the specified curriculum requirements.
- 2) Have two or more years of full time experience with an insurance regulatory agency, or in the insurance industry. Regulatory contractors with two years of experience are also eligible.
- 3) Be a General or Individual Sustaining Member in good standing.

In applying for the CICSR® designation, you must certify that you are an IRES member or are applying for IRES membership with this submission. If you are not already an IRES member, then a membership application and the applicable annual membership dues must be submitted with this application.

I hereby attest that I am currently a General Member or Individual Sustaining Member in good standing of the Insurance Regulatory Examiners Society, or am becoming a General Member or Individual Sustaining Member. In addition, by signing below I attest that I have two years of full time regulatory or insurance industry service.

I authorize the Insurance Regulatory Examiners Society and persons acting on its behalf to obtain such other and further information as may be necessary to verify the information provided in this application and to evaluate my eligibility for the designation. I further authorize my educational institution, governmental agency, employer, supervisor or any other organization or person that has records or knowledge of my eligibility to give such information to the Society.
